

Welcome to Mary Ann's Book Corner

After years of service on the missions field - to introduce the French speaking world to Jesus Christ, we would like to introduce you to some excellent Christian literature that can change lives for Jesus Christ. As part of Bibles & Literature in French, we ask you to pray for the Francophone world - to come to know Jesus as Savior and Lord. —Russ & Mary Ann Miller

On this edition of Mary Ann's Book Corner, we are featuring the book ... "Everyone a Child Should Know", by Clare Heath-Whyte and Jenny Brake. Published in 2017 in Great Britain, for 3-10 year-olds.

This book was relased in 2018 by BLF Éditions in French as ... "Toutes ces personnes que je devrais connaître". It was published March 21, 2019, by BLF Editions, Rue de Maubeuge, 59164 Marpent, France.

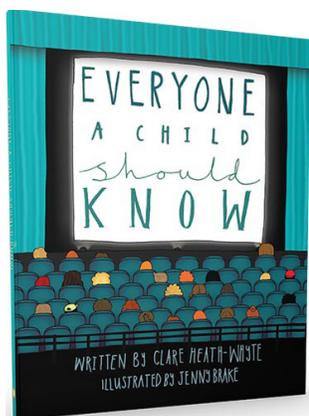

This book was written for young children to acquaint them with 52 heroes of the faith (one each week for a year) who wanted to live for their friend Jesus. Some lived centuries ago, some are still living today, some are well known, others not at all. They come from all walks of life, various cultures and conditions--men, women, authors, poets, musicians, reformers, creators, sportifs, missionaries... Some were exceptional, others were ordinary. You can help your children discover, from an early age, through these 52 short and captivating biographies, how to act for the glory of God by the grace of God.

Clare Heath-Whyte

Brother Andrew, Mary Jones, Rembrandt, John Calvin, Susanna Wesley and many others were great examples of 1 Corinthians 10:31: "Whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God."

Please pray that parents will read the stories of these remarkable men and women with their children, realizing that any "friend of Jesus" can accomplish extraordinary things for Him!
