

Welcome to Mary Ann's Book Corner

After years of service on the missions field - to introduce the French speaking world to Jesus Christ, we would like to introduce you to some excellent Christian literature that can change lives for Jesus Christ. As part of Bibles & Literature in French, we ask you to pray for the Francophone world - to come to know Jesus as Savior and Lord. —Russ & Mary Ann Miller

If God were shaping your local church as He imagines it, to what would it resemble? Do you aspire to live something more with your community? Are you still marveling at the overwhelming message of the Gospel? Are you ready to question your idea of Church?

Francis Chan returns to his own dreams and his own mistakes. In his book “Letters to the Church”, Chan rethinks the Church while staying anchored to the Scriptures and shares the stories of ordinary people that God uses to change the world.

He asserts, “We have moved far away from what God calls the Church. We are all aware of it. We know that what we are living today in our Churches is radically different from the Church as it is described in Scripture. For decades, some church leaders, like me, have lost from sight the powerful mystery inherent in the Church. We have taught people to sit in the pews, to become dependent on things of little importance. It is time for this to change.”

When Jesus returns, will He find us taking care of His Bride much more than we take care of our own lives? “Letters to the Church” recalls at what point in times past, the Church was powerful and glorious. “Letters to the Church” calls us to be, once again, the Church that God wants us to be.

Please pray that both French-speaking and English-speaking Christians will read this book along with Scripture to learn what changes our heavenly Father would have us make in order to conform with His intentions for the Church.
