Currently Moving Forward

Time keeps counting down! It's hard to believe that September is next month. I was excited at the start of summer to see God work. Now it's the end of summer, and he is still busy working!

In June, my church put on a weeklong program for junior and senior high kids. We called it "Grace Glee" and had a great time singing and acting about grace with some wonderful girls. It was rewarding to both plan and participate in it, but I don't think I'll ever live down the silly "Pig Song" I created for the Good Samaritan skit.

Also, I just completed an online summer school course with Moody Bible Institute. It was amazing to read through half of the Old Testament and study the cultures surrounding ancient Israel. Now, I only have three classes until I earn my Certificate of Biblical Studies.

My future service with BLF is never really far from my mind. I have shared it with many friends and recruited them for

Pastries for a BLF dessert night

SIT (Spiritual Intercessory Team). I hosted a dessert night to give some friends more details about the ministry. The departure goal is still mid-September. With another $1,300,

I will reach 75% of my needed support and will be able to start the visa process. That's only three people with $35/month promises! Then, I can set a departure date and work to raise the last 25%.

I would like to spread the vision of BLF farther than my personal circle of contacts. Is there anyone you know who would be interested in hearing more about BLF? Would your Sunday school class or Bible study group like to hear about this ministry reaching the French-speaking world for Christ? Please pray about it, and then let me know how God answers!

SIT_Mission 3: Serving Together

3 John 1:5,8

Beloved, you are acting faithfully in whatever you accomplish for the brethren... Therefore we ought to support such men, so that we may be fellow workers with the truth.

There is a biblical concept I never fully understood until now: A person who supports a missionary either prayerfully or financially is actually participating actively in the ministry! The supporter and the worker are united in the work of God that is being accomplished. I feel a unity with you and gratitude for your friendship, prayers, and financial gifts. I hope you feel like a participant in this ministry, too! God has great plans for us.
